Appendix IV.1.11

Character Bio Reflection

Name:

First, complete this reflection based on your own character. Come to class tomorrow with this sheet along with your revisions based on your reflections. Tomorrow in class you will be exchanging your character biography with a peer and having him/her give feedback on your character bio. Finally, you will make final changes to your biography based on these comments and turn in your final draft, along with this form and your peer feedback, on Tuesday, September 23rd.

- What is the most interesting/compelling thing about this character?

- Is the character likable? Why? If not, what would make her/him more likable?

- What did I learn about my character and my play from having written the character bio?

- What have I learned from this activity (critique) that I am going to apply to my play?
