

SCHOOL PROFILE 2021-2022

High Tech High Media Arts opened its doors in September 2005 and is based on the growth and success of its sister High Tech Schools. Founded by an industry and educator coalition, HTH Media Arts is an independent public charter school serving 400 students in grades 9-12. High Tech High Media Arts helps students develop global awareness through rigorous academics and relevant workplace skills in preparation for rewarding lives in our increasingly technological and interconnected world. Innovative features include performance-based assessment, state-of-the-art technological facilities for project based learning, internships for all students, and close links to the high tech workplace. High Tech High Media Arts is accredited by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges.

ABOUT HTHMA

High Tech High Media Arts inspires its students to cultivate their inner strengths and strive for personal greatness as local and global citizens.

High Tech High Media Arts operates on four design principles: equity, personalization, authentic work, and collaborative design. Responding directly to the needs of students, all four principles connect to the broad mission of preparation for the adult world. Moreover, all four call for structures and practices that high schools do not now routinely employ.

The design principles permeate every aspect of life at High Tech High: the small size of the school, the focus on social class integration, the personalization through advisory, the emphasis on integrated, project-based learning and student exhibitions, the requirement that all students complete internships in the community, and the provision of ample planning time for teacher teams during the work day.

STUDENTS & FACULTY

High Tech High Media Arts students reflect the full socio economic and cultural diversity of the San Diego Unified School District. The criteria for admission are simple: California residence, graduation from the 8th grade, and an expressed interest in attending the school. Students are admitted via a zip code based lottery system, ensuring a diverse student body.

The HTHMA faculty, 35 in all, consists of a diverse mix of master teachers, newly trained teachers, and individuals from industry. Each HTHMA faculty member serves as an advisor to about 16 students. Teachers work in teams, responsible for the academic achievement of the 50-60 students in their group.

PROGRAM

High Tech High Media Arts (HTHMA) is not a technology high school. Although some students may have a strong desire to pursue computer related programs, students use technology to engage in a wide range of pursuits: scientific, mathematical, literary, historical, artistic, and aesthetic.

As High Tech High Media Arts teachers develop curriculum, they consider the California academic content standards and the High Tech High design principles. This model calls for students to achieve competency in teamwork, technology, communication, art and design, ethics, responsibility, and habits of mind. All HTHMA academic core courses have been approved by the University of California. We celebrate collaboration and the success of others and consistent to that mission we do not have class ranking, valedictorians, or individual academic awards.

SENIOR PROJECTS

The senior projects are a culmination of students' personalized academic endeavors at HTHMA. Seniors are encouraged to pursue projects that respond to their personal interests, college and career goals, and curiosities. Spanning an entire academic semester, the projects require students to set large goals, demonstrate independent learning, manage complex and challenging tasks, and present substantive work to a panel of experts. Each semester project will reflect an integration of two disciplines from their "Blocked" classes: English 4, Multimedia 3/4, Physics 3/4, Digital Arts in Mixed Media, and Environmental Science.

COLLEGE COURSES

Through a selective application process, 14 HTHMA (7-Fall/7-Spring) students are able to take part in a special concurrent enrollment program between HTHMA and the University of San Diego. As part of the program, HTHMA students have the opportunity to take courses at the University of San Diego. In addition, HTHMA students also have the opportunity to participate in the San Diego Mesa Community College Accelerated College Program. Through this program and partnership, Mesa College faculty members teach courses at HTHMA in which students can earn transferable college credit.

When building their digital portfolios students have options of using tools such as Weebly, Wix or ZeeMee as their platform of choice. Each digital portfolio often includes a personal statement, resume, and work samples. Additionally, students capture their internship and job shadow experiences in these digital portfolios that ultimately have the authentic audience of college admission committees.

ACADEMIC INTERNSHIPS HTHMA

One of the most important elements of a High Tech High Media Arts education is a connection to the real world of adult work and productivity. At HTH schools, we facilitate this connection by hiring teachers who have experience outside the classroom, encouraging projects that have real applications, inviting professionals into the school throughout the year, and creating an internship experience for students. HTHMA students work and learn at businesses, schools, nonprofit organizations and professional associations around San Diego County. Each student is matched with an individual mentor. Each student develops a project that contributes to the organization and is linked to the student's academic work. Internships take place for 35-40 hours per week for a four week period during the spring semester in their junior year. HTH has developed academic internships with over 100 local businesses and organizations including:
