2024-2025 School Accountability Report Card (Published During the 2025-2026 School Year)

General Information about the School Accountability Report Card (SARC)

SARC Overview

By February 1 of each year, every school in California is required by state law to publish a School Accountability Report Card (SARC). The SARC contains information about the condition and performance of each California public school. Under the Local Control Funding Formula (LCFF) all local educational agencies (LEAs) are required to prepare a Local Control and Accountability Plan (LCAP), which describes how they intend to meet annual school-specific goals for all pupils, with specific activities to address state and local priorities. Additionally, data reported in an LCAP is to be consistent with data reported in the SARC.

- For more information about SARC requirements and access to prior year reports, see the California Department of Education (CDE) SARC web page at <https://www.cde.ca.gov/ta/ac/sa/>
- For more information about the LCFF or the LCAP, see the CDE LCFF web page at <https://www.cde.ca.gov/fg/aa/lc/>
- For additional information about the school, parents/guardians and community members should contact the school principal or the district office.

DataQuest

DataQuest is an online data tool located on the CDE DataQuest web page at <https://dq.cde.ca.gov/dataquest/> that contains additional information about this school and comparisons of the school to the district and the county. Specifically, DataQuest is a dynamic system that provides reports for accountability (e.g., test data, enrollment, high school graduates, dropouts, course enrollments, staffing, and data regarding English learners).

California School Dashboard

The California School Dashboard (Dashboard) <https://www.caschooldashboard.org/> reflects California's new accountability and continuous improvement system and provides information about how LEAs and schools are meeting the needs of California's diverse student population. The Dashboard contains reports that display the performance of LEAs, schools, and student groups on a set of state and local measures to assist in identifying strengths, challenges, and areas in need of improvement.

Internet Access

Internet access is available at public libraries and other locations that are publicly accessible (e.g., the California State Library). Access to the Internet at libraries and public locations is generally provided on a first-come, first-served basis. Other use restrictions may include the hours of operation, the length of time that a workstation may be used (depending on availability), the types of software programs available on a workstation, and the ability to print documents.

Admission Requirements for the University of California (UC)	Admission requirements for the UC follow guidelines set forth in the Master Plan, which requires that the top one-eighth of the state's high school graduates, as well as those transfer students who have successfully completed specified college course work, be eligible for admission to the UC. These requirements are designed to ensure that all eligible students are adequately prepared for University-level work. For general admissions requirements, please visit the UC Admissions Information website at https://admission.universityofcalifornia.edu/ .
Admission Requirements for the California State University (CSU)	Eligibility for admission to the CSU is determined by three factors: (1) Specific high school courses, (2) Grades in specified courses and test scores, and (3) Graduation from high school. Some campuses have higher standards for particular majors or students who live outside the local campus area. Because of the number of students who apply, a few campuses have higher standards (supplementary admission criteria) for all applicants. Most CSU campuses have local admission guarantee policies for students who graduate or transfer from high schools and colleges that are historically served by a CSU campus in that region. For admission, application, and fee information, see the CSU website at https://www2.calstate.edu/ .

2025-26 School Description and Mission Statement

About Our School

Rod Buenviaje is a proud member of the High Tech High learning community and is currently the director of High Tech Middle Chula Vista. He is one of the founding staff of the original High Tech High in Pt. Loma, where he taught mathematics. In 2007, he was thrilled to help start High Tech High Chula Vista, and bring his passion for math and projects to a community that he loves. While teaching at HTHCV, he also served as Assistant Dean of Students, and a mentor to new teachers. He earned a B.S. in mathematics from National University and a teaching credential through the HTH District intern program. He has participated in the Virtual Trade Mission Foundation's global classroom in Singapore and Brunei and has been awarded the Christa McAuliffe Award by the NEA Foundation. Rod is passionate about education and is excited to be a part of an innovative teaching community. Rod and his wife Jen spend most of their free time in awe of their beautiful children, Joshua and Katelyn.

Mission Statement

High Tech Middle Chula Vista is proud to serve our community and offer a rigorous, project-based approach to learning. At HTMCV, our curriculum is based on the HTH design principles of common intellectual mission, adult world connection, and personalization. Teachers, as curriculum designers, strive to create innovative project-based learning experiences that will engage our diverse group of students in complex, adult-world projects through which they will develop and apply skills and knowledge. Our classrooms are fully inclusive, as we want to help all students to reach their potential.

All of our students participate in a yearly Exhibition Night, where their work is on display for the community, and they conduct Presentations of Learning at the end of each semester to demonstrate their understanding and growth. Each student also has a designated faculty advisor who offers academic, emotional, and social support through the three-year middle school journey. Students in all grades are on teaching teams which include Humanities and Integrated Math/Science for the full school year, and take semester-long exploratory classes in Art, Theatre, and Engineering.

Our building, which we share with High Tech Elementary Chula Vista (HTECV), is designed to be a healthy, sustainable, and effective learning environment. The school itself is a learning tool for students, staff, and community members, with demonstration areas and signage to exhibit the benefits of high performance, environmentally-friendly design. Of particular note is the indoor air quality, room acoustics, and day lighting. Our school is one of the most energy efficient in the nation as well, with rooftop solar panels producing over 70% of our energy needs on an annualized basis. We are also proud to boast an edible garden with planting space for every student, and a fruit orchard, each integrated into the curriculum and managed entirely by students.

School Facility Conditions and Planned Improvements

HTMCV is a 60,974 square foot, two-story, building with HTECV built in 2014. The building is in excellent condition, with maintenance and custodial services provided by on-site staff. There are no maintenance needs beyond those that are routine for a school of this size. A 104 Kw photovoltaic solar system was completed in September of 2016 that is shared with two schools.

B. Pupil Outcomes

State Priority: Pupil Achievement

The SARC provides the following information relevant to the State priority: Pupil Achievement (Priority 4):

Statewide Assessments

(i.e., California Assessment of Student Performance and Progress [CAASPP] System includes the Smarter Balanced Summative Assessments for students in the general education population and the California Alternate Assessments [CAAs] for English language arts/literacy [ELA] and mathematics given in grades three through eight and grade eleven. Only eligible students may participate in the administration of the CAAs. CAAs items are aligned with alternate achievement standards, which are linked with the Common Core State Standards [CCSS] for students with the most significant cognitive disabilities).

The CAASPP System encompasses the following assessments and student participation requirements:

1. Smarter Balanced Summative Assessments and CAAs for ELA in grades three through eight and grade eleven.
2. Smarter Balanced Summative Assessments and CAAs for mathematics in grades three through eight and grade eleven.
3. California Science Test (CAST) and CAAs for Science in grades five, eight, and once in high school (i.e., grade ten, eleven, or twelve).

College and Career Ready

The percentage of students who have successfully completed courses that satisfy the requirements for entrance to the University of California and the California State University, or career technical education sequences or programs of study.

Percentage of Students Meeting or Exceeding the State Standard on CAASPP

This table displays CAASPP test results in ELA and mathematics for all students grades three through eight and grade eleven taking and completing a state-administered assessment.

To protect student privacy, double dashes (--) are used in the table when the cell size within a selected student population is ten or fewer.

ELA and mathematics test results include the Smarter Balanced Summative Assessments and the CAA. The “Percent Met or Exceeded” is calculated by taking the total number of students who met or exceeded the standard on the Smarter Balanced Summative Assessment plus the total number of students who met the standard (i.e., achieved Level 3–Alternate) on the CAA divided by the total number of students who participated in both assessments.

This table displays CAASPP test results in ELA by student group for students grades three through eight and grade eleven taking and completing a state-administered assessment.

ELA test results include the Smarter Balanced Summative Assessment and the CAA. The “Percent Met or Exceeded” is calculated by taking the total number of students who met or exceeded the standard on the Smarter Balanced Summative Assessment plus the total number of students who met the standard (i.e., achieved Level 3–Alternate) on the CAA divided by the total number of students who participated in both assessments.

To protect student privacy, double dashes (--) are used in the table when the cell size within a selected student population is ten or fewer.

Note: The number of students tested includes all students who participated in the test whether they received a score or not; however, the number of students tested is not the number that was used to calculate the achievement level percentages. The achievement level percentages are calculated using only students who received scores.

2025-26 Opportunities for Parental Involvement

High Tech Middle Chula Vista's Family Collaborative has been instrumental in improving communication with parents and getting more parents involved in making decisions that positively affect student learning outcomes. The Family Collaborative holds monthly meetings at the school site. Parents have an active voice at HTMCV. Parents have ample opportunities to volunteer in classrooms, plan and coordinate fundraising efforts to give money back into school programs by way of a grant program, foster a positive social environment for students from all communities, provide optimal nutrition to students during testing times throughout the year, and communicate to all members of the community via a parent e-newsletter and weekly news blast.

Professional Development

Professional development is a core component of instructional practice at High Tech High schools. Dedicated time to refine teaching practice is embedded within each teacher's contractual work year and is provided through multiple, structured formats.

Staff Days: Returning faculty report to campus days multiple prior to the start of the school year. In addition, teachers participate in professional development days throughout the academic year and an additional day at the conclusion of the year. These staff days are designed to support collaborative learning and instructional improvement, grounded in the belief that significant professional expertise exists within the school community.

New Teacher Odyssey: Prior to the staff days for returning teachers, newly hired educators participate in an immersive PD program known as “Odyssey.” During this experience, teachers engage in project-based learning as learners by participating in a Project “Slice,” a condensed project experience that highlights essential instructional components and practices.

Weekly and Ongoing Professional Learning: Teachers arrive before the instructional day to engage in collegial dialogue and collaborative professional learning, with meetings occurring at least three times per week. In addition, teachers participate in a two-hour professional learning session every Wednesday afternoon, with topics ranging from project design to discipline-specific pedagogy. These structures provide a consistent framework for both veteran and new teachers to reflect on and refine their instructional practice. Faculty collaborate to analyze student data, plan projects, and address instructional challenges. Teachers also participate in extended half-day professional development sessions as scheduled.

As part of the High Tech High charter management organization, teachers receive additional professional development support through the High Tech High Credential Program and the High Tech High Graduate School of Education.
